O PEIXINHO ENCRENQUEIRO

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of an underwater scene. In the center, a large yellow fish with brown stripes swims towards the right. To its left, a smaller yellow fish with brown stripes swims towards the left. Below the yellow fish, a green fish with brown stripes swims towards the left. To the right of the yellow fish, a blue fish swims towards the right. Further right, a red fish swims towards the left. In the bottom left, a purple fish with a large eye and a small mouth swims towards the left. The background is a bright blue ocean with bubbles. The bottom of the image shows a sandy seabed with various coral reefs, including a large purple coral and a smaller green coral. There are also some seashells and a small purple starfish on the sand.
