The infographic is divided into three horizontal sections, each with a circular illustration and a corresponding text box. The top section shows a person playing a piano with musical notes floating around. A speech bubble says "I like playing the piano." To the right, a text box shows "I like" followed by "playing" in green, then "the piano." An arrow points to "playing" with the text "Add ing to the verb after like." The middle section shows a woman dancing with two children. A speech bubble says "I enjoy dancing." To the right, a text box shows "I enjoy" followed by "dancing." An arrow points to "enjoy" with the text "You can also say I enjoy to say you like doing an activity." The bottom section shows two people painting on easels outdoors. A speech bubble says "I don't like painting." To the right, a text box shows "I don't like" followed by "painting." An arrow points to "don't" with the text "To make the sentence negative, add don't before like." At the bottom right, a pink textured box contains the text: "Como funciona: Like e enjoy significam 'gostar'. Don't like significa 'não gostar'. Depois dessas expressões, o verbo que segue é acrescido de '-ing'."

I like playing the piano.

I like playing the piano.

Add ing to the verb after like.

I enjoy dancing.

I enjoy dancing.

You can also say I enjoy to say you like doing an activity.

I don't like painting.

I don't like painting.

To make the sentence negative, add don't before like.

Como funciona:
Like e enjoy significam "gostar". Don't like significa "não gostar". Depois dessas expressões, o verbo que segue é acrescido de "-ing".
