A expressão utilizada no inglês para falar de planos e intenções futuras é o GOING TO.

Ele é usado quando uma ação já está planejada e irá acontecer num futuro próximo. Ou seja, quando a pessoa já decidiu o que vai fazer.

Regras

Afirmativa (Affirmative Form): sujeito + verbo to be + going to + infinitivo do verbo principal sem "to".

Exemplo: I am going to São Paulo. (Eu irei à São Paulo)

Negativa (Negative Form): sujeito + verbo to be + not + going to + infinitivo do verbo principal sem "to".

Exemplo: I am not going to São Paulo. (Eu não irei à São Paulo)

Interrogativa (Interrogative Form): verbo to be + sujeito + going to + infinitivo do verbo principal sem "to"

Exemplo: Am I going to São Paulo? (Eu irei à São Paulo?)
