QUER ME CALAR?
SO ME MATANDO!!!

PARA QUAIS LUGARES AS IMAGENS TE CARREGAM?

A blurred topographic map background with text overlay. The map shows various terrain features, including green areas representing vegetation or low elevation, brown and tan areas representing higher elevations or urban areas, and blue lines representing water bodies or roads. The text is centered in the middle of the image.

PARA QUAIS IMAGENS OS
LUGARES TE CARREGAM?

A stylized map of a city with teal-colored buildings and streets. The map is rendered in a light, sketchy style with thin black lines for streets and teal blocks for buildings. The text is centered over the map.
